VI. CONDITIONS

The following Conditions apply to this coverage.

A. Cancellation, Termination and Nonrenewal

1. The Master Policy shall terminate on the date specified in the Declarations Page or, in the event of cancellation or nonrenewal of the Master Policy, then the date specified in such notice of cancellation or nonrenewal. There shall be no coverage for a Stolen Identity Event or, with respect to Item I-B a Theft occurring after the Termination Date. Termination of the Master Policy shall not reduce any time periods during which You must report a Stolen Identity Event, Unauthorized Funds Transfer, or, with respect to Item I-B, a Theft, or during which You must send LifeLock and Us a signed, sworn proof of Loss or affidavit containing the information We request to investigate a claim.

2. We shall mail or deliver to LifeLock as the Master Policyholder at the mailing address shown in the Declarations Page of the Master Policy written notice of premium increase, change in deductible or reduction in limits or substantial reduction in coverage at least sixty days before the expiration date of the Master Policy. If we fail to provide the sixty days' notice, the coverage provided to LifeLock as the Master Policyholder remains in effect until notice is given or until the effective date of replacement coverage obtained by LifeLock as the Master Policyholder, whichever occurs first. Notice is considered given sixty days following the date of mailing or delivery of the notice. If LifeLock as the Master Policyholder elects not to renew, any earned premium for the period of extension of the terminated Policy shall be calculated pro rata at the lower of the current or previous year's rate. If LifeLock as the Master Policyholder accepts the renewal, the premium increase, if any, and other changes are effective the day following the prior policy's expiration or anniversary date. For purposes of this Section VI.A.2, notice shall be considered given if we deliver new Policy terms and conditions sixty days before the expiration date of the Master Policy.

3. Your coverage under the Master Policy shall terminate upon termination of Your enrollment in a Membership Program or the termination of the Master Policy, whichever is earlier.

of a Financial Institution; and (b) with respect to Item I-B only, to a Loss occurring anywhere in the world.

D. Legal Action Against Us

Except as provided in Section VI-A.4 of the Master Policy, no legal action may be brought or made against Us under the Master Policy unless (i) there has been full compliance with all the terms of the Master Policy by You; and (ii) the action is brought within two (2) years and a day after the date on which a Stolen Identity Event or Unauthorized Funds Transfer is first discovered by You or, with respect to Item I-B, a Theft occurs.

E. Venue and Choice of Law

Any dispute arising out of or related to the Master Policy, or with respect to the application of or the interpretation of the Master Policy, shall be governed by the laws of the state of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws.

You and We further agree that, in the event either party commences an action against the other arising out of a dispute under the Master Policy, such action may only be filed in the state courts in New York or in the federal courts located in the state of New York.

F. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

Your coverage under the Master Policy shall be void if You intentionally conceal or misrepresent a material fact.

G. Bankruptcy

Your bankruptcy or insolvency shall not relieve Us of any obligation under the Master Policy.

H. Duplicate Coverages

If two or more of the Master Policy's Items of Coverage apply to the same Loss, We will not pay more than the actual amount of any Loss.

I. Other Insurance

The benefits provided under the Master Policy are in excess of Your other existing insurance and other benefits, if any, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis, including any right to receive reimbursement for a Stolen Funds Loss from the Financial Institution holding the Account from which funds were stolen, or from any other source, or, for fraudulent tax refunds, from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service or the taxing authority of any state in the United States of America or the District of Columbia. If there is any other valid benefit, insurance or right to recovery which would otherwise apply in the absence of the Master Policy, benefits under the Master Policy shall be available only to the extent that any Loss is not covered by such other insurance or other benefits, and in no event shall it include reimbursement of any deductible You paid or were responsible for under such other insurance or benefit. In no event shall We pay for any Loss if such other insurance or benefit is denied due to the existence of Your coverage under the Master Policy. In no event will We pay more than the actual amount of Loss.

J. Transfer of Your Rights and Duties under the Master Policy

Your rights and duties under the Master Policy may not be transferred without Our written consent except in the case of death, incapacity or bankruptcy.

If You die or become incapacitated, Your rights and duties will be deemed to have been transferred to Your legal representative as appointed for Your estate or in the case of incapacity having the right to exercise Your power of attorney, but only while acting within the scope of duties as Your legal representative. Until a legal representative is appointed for You, anyone having proper temporary custody of Your property may assume Your rights and duties under the Master Policy, but only with respect to the property in such person's possession.
